The BRIDGE

Building Responsible Individuals Demonstrating Godliness to Everyone

Note from the Senior Pastor

A quick note from sunny Guam where Becky and I find ourselves very involved in the world of our two-year-old grandson. While we pray for Braddock daily, we find we are consumed with new choirs and other delights. Why, yesterday I found my heavenly father showing me love in an expression of care from Micah; I was very tired and laid down on a couch when all of the sudden, he got up, got a blanket, put it over me, then squeezed in next to me. At that moment I thought, “Lord I love you and just want to squeeze in next to you and rest with you.”

I love you all and will share more upon our return, but for now just know we love you all and will be home soon to share more of how we are seeing God under a different light, in so many great ways.

Love you all, Pastor Timothy

Note from the Associate Pastor

April showers bring May flowers, right? Well then what do March showers bring? Guess we’ll have to see this month, won’t we?

As we close in on another month this year, I can’t help but look back on this year and think to myself, has time really gone by this fast? Xander is almost crawling, Spring Break is rolling by, the weather is beginning its steady incline towards summer, and most importantly Easter is right around the corner!

Spoiler alert, Braddock, the tomb is empty! There is no greater hope for us as believers than the fact that Jesus Christ ROSE FROM THE GRAVE after he was slain on the cross for our sins. Paul told us this in 1 Corinthians 15:

“And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile, and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If in Christ we have hope in this life only, we are of all people most to be pitied.”

1 Corinthians 15:17-19

I pray that this Easter season as we observe the resurrection unfolding on Sunday mornings and in our own devotional lives that we remember to glory in the resurrection. A simple acknowledgment of the resurrection won’t do this year. We together are calling you out, Braddock, to find deep worship and satisfaction in the greatest hope of all; the resurrection of the Son of God.

Thank you, Jesus!
Pastor JJ

Note from the Head Deacon

Hello Saints at Braddock;

Well Spring is here! And you are ready to spring into action....right? There are many ways to serve; but as I reflect on my life, I find that serving must come out of the correct source.....the living Word of God.

Well here are some ways to feast on the living water:

- 1) Sunday School training with Ken Pierce this Friday at 6 pm, and yes, you will be fed in more ways than one.
- 2) Sunday School every Sunday morning at 9:45 am. There is a class for YOU.
- 3) Sunday morning worship and ministry at 11 am. Why not start off every week with the Lord the focus of your life?
- 4) Tuesday afternoon Ladies Bible Study. For those ladies that need midweek encouragement and nourishment.
- 5) Wednesday night prayer and worship at 6:30 pm.

I occasionally get the question, “Why am I discouraged and anxious about life?” I will answer “join the club” when I am not engaged with the living God. To change, we need to be in the word ourselves and be under ministry that feeds and sustains you. Are you listening.....the word sanctifies you and I, not magically or mechanically, but as you pursue the living God in His Word. It is available to all and so are the above opportunities to grow in grace.

“The thief comes only to steal, kill and destroy; I came that they might have life, and have it abundantly.” John 10:10

“My sheep hear My voice and they follow Me.” John 10:27

Who and what are you following?

The deacon team is ready to serve you when called upon.

Lord bless you, Mitch & the Deacon team

Note from the Sunday School Director

Welcome! Yea God! Another beautiful spring season of God's awesome creation has arrived right on time as always. Some say Easter is late this year, but that's just an April Fool's joke. As always, our Glorious celebration of Easter is right on time. It is always on the first Sunday- after the first full moon-after the vernal equinox.

For Braddock this is a month to Invite:

Invite someone to join you on "Come One, Come All Sunday"

On April 14th Palm Sunday, invite them to join you for Worship! Continue to invite them on Easter Sunday to celebrate the Resurrection to Life of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Most importantly, share The Gospel with them and invite them to put all their Faith in Jesus, God's Only Son who promises Eternal Life to All who believe in Him. Words can't begin to describe the Life He offers us to Live with Him Forever!The Lord is risen, He is risen indeed! By putting our Faith in Him, we will be too!

Invite them also to join you in Sunday School! Come and enjoy the wonderful way The Gospel of John encourages us to "be doers of The Word and not hearers only." In other words, take action, share the Gospel, and invite!

May God Bless You Always—In All Seasons!

Gary Moore, HAPPY EASTER!

PS: INVITE

Kingdom Work Youth Ministry

Dear Beloved,

It is yet another month where we can say, "where did this month go?" I am quickly realizing the truth in James 4:14, "Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes." So, what does that mean for us today, and every day?

I believe we need to live every day as it is our last, for we do not know when our time is up, or when Jesus is coming again, but this time, not receiving His cup. With this mindset, I no longer am focused on worldly dreams, but on Kingdom things. I don't want to waste my time daydreaming about my future, but take time worshiping God in reverent posture. I cannot spend all my efforts on gaining wealth or prosperity, instead, gaining souls for God that will one day join me. You see, church, when we have a Kingdom focus, we are no longer part of this world's circus.

Now that I am done trying to rhyme...I want to thank you for your prayers for the Youth Group. God is so good and is showing His face to these young ones. How good our God is! Keep an eye out on the events coming up. We need more volunteers in many areas and would love to plug you in!

In His Service, Jonathan Gesin
